Rhead Group Appoints New Head of Planning, Scheduling & EVM

Professional services consultancy, the Rhead Group Limited, has appointed Caroline Clarke as head of planning, scheduling and EVM.

A Prince 2 qualified Member of the Association for Project Management, Caroline has over ten years of experience as a senior project controls manager and consultant reporting to multiple clients within a range of sectors including aerospace, oil and gas, defence and rail.

Caroline joined the company in 2008 as a senior earned value consultant and has been responsible for the implementation of a number of earned value management (EVM), project controls, process and independent project performance reviews in the energy transmission sector and across the Airbus A350, XWB and Military A400M programmes. Deliverables for the A400M include the management and delivery of EVM for the final assembly line in Seville and for customer services in Madrid, and for the A350, the management of the training facility and cultural change in Toulouse.

In her new role she is responsible for leading the Rhead Group's team of planners and earned value consultants operating across the UK.

"Caroline is a specialist in full programme management and EVM deployment, training and performance measurement. During her career with us she has already led a centralised team to deliver fully-integrated EVM and project controls, including quality management, assurance, governance and training. She is a highly valued member of our business and has the skills to drive further innovative service development for our clients", said managing director, Andrew Ferguson.

Caroline is also member of the Association for Project Management's Earned Value Special Interest Group.
